TUCKAHOE EQUESTRIAN CENTER CAMPING INFORMATION

Any and all costs for damage to the park and its facilities, beyond natural wear, is the responsibility of the individuals or group camping at the facility. Any activity held at the park must comply with all federal, State, and local rules, regulations and laws. Camping is monitored by Park personnel and TEC board members. CAMPING IS FOR MEMBERS ONLY!

1. Please call/text Stacy Frank to check availability: 516-901-4979. A signed Camping and Reservation Agreement is required to reserve a date; address to mail form is at the bottom of the form. Deposits are refundable after 10 days of cancellation notice. If you are unable to mail your form, camping forms are available in the mailbox at the corner of the Clubhouse, Please deposit your form with payment in the brass mail slot in the garage door on the front of the clubhouse. Membership forms are also available in the mailbox at the corner. GPS ADDRESS: 619 Crouse Mill Rd., Queen Anne, MD 21657 (Note this is NOT our mailing address.)
2. Upon completion of camping:
   a) All trash must be removed;
   b) All lights or items requiring electricity must be turned off; water spigots shut off and hoses disconnected;
   c) If you use the barn and/or corrals, they must be returned in the condition you found them it, i.e. manure removed, doors closed and locked;
   d) Property is to be left clean, and manure removed from grounds. You may spread out your manure along the field and tree lines.
3. No horses or camping is permitted in the picnic area and jousting path. Dogs MUST be leashed.
4. No weapons or alcohol are permitted on TEC grounds.
5. In case of an emergency, contact Park office 410-820-1668 and a TEC Board Member.

RESERVING A SPACE: We often have events planned that would impact your camping stay, so we suggest you check our website calendar or Facebook page before you come to the center (www.tuckahoeequestriancenter.com)

PARKING: There are numerous spaces to park your rig and set up a temporary corral. Twenty-amp electric is available around the picnic area while 30 amp is available in hi-line area along the property line.

CORRALS/BARN STALLS: The corrals are located at the end of the arena. The barn has 6 stalls. It is a former "cow barn" and the stalls have concrete floors, you must bring your own bedding for the stall. Stalls must be left CLEAN!
RESTROOMS/SHOWERS/WATER: There is a porta-potty available but no facilities for showers. There are numerous water spigots around the arena and next to the barn. Water is shut off in the winter months.

TRAIL INFORMATION: Directly across the entrance to TEC, you can access several trails into Tuckahoe State Park. A detailed map can be obtained from the park office located on Eveland Rd. There is also an ALLTrails user named "Tuckahoe Equestrian Center" that you can follow to see our trails. Please make sure you stay on park property and don't stray into private land including Adkins Arboretum which has signs posted. For info about the park and hunting dates, see the Maryland DNR website.
